WELCOME TO MISS HILDA'S CREAM TEA AT THE PLAS

IT IS WITH GREAT PLEASURE that we welcome you to our legendary Miss Hilda's Cream Tea at The Plas. The creation of this thoroughly English institution is credited to a lifelong friend of Queen Victoria, Anna Maria Russell, who was looking for a means of avoiding hunger pangs in the long gap between an early lunch and a late supper.

Carrying on this delightful and traditional aspect of our nations culinary heritage. Our Cream Tea is taken in the Drawing Room or on the Veranda, during the Summer months, and is available daily between 3pm and 4:30pm.

Your afternoon tea is served from a specially designed stand and is complimented by fine bone china and silverware. The centrepiece being of course the drink itself whether you prefer a freshly brewed pot of tea or a continental café press of specially ground coffee.

All that remains is to wish you a wonderful afternoon.
